MAJ. KOCH WINNER In Steeplechase

Competition for Loving Cup Draws Interest at Close of Horse Show.

Competition for several loving cups enlivened the closing program of the National Capital Horse Show at Arlington Park, Va., yesterday afternoon.

The cup offered by Gus Buccholz for the military race was captured by Lieut. T. H. McCreery, riding Courteous. The Gen. Buchanan cup for the steeplechase race was carried home by Maj. Stanley Koch, riding Jaybird.

The Army challenge cup presented by William N. Dykman, which must be won three times by the same entry or regiment, was awarded this year to a Fort Myer team of three horses entered by Maj. C. P. George. His horses were Woodbury, Geismont and Irwin. This event was decided on the ability of the horses to take the jumps. Gen. John J. Pershing presented the cup. Maj. George has not won it three times, however, and it will be contested for again next year.

next year.

It is doubtful if any event of the show was enjoyed more by the crowd than the pony race yesterday. Although only three boys were entered, they furnished an exciting and amusing five minutes. Black Beauty, ridden by Charles Eimer, appeared to be the fastest of the three, but he finished third because of a desire to turn into the stables every time he reached the end of the rack. The race was won by Flash, entered by Meade Palmer. Carl Morgan, riding Black Pony, was second. Col. Robert M. Thompson, whose horses carried off a number of prizes in the show, entertained a party of judges and officials at dinner on his houseboat, Everglade, yesterday evening.

Those present were Admiral Cary T.
Grayson, Commissioner Cuno H. Rudolph, Maj. Harry Leonard, Maj. C. P.
George, Melvin C. Hazen, Thomas
Bones, John Gheen, George B. Hulme and Harry W. Smith.
